Property Description

Shambala is a unique compound set on 10.44 acres of hillside in beautiful Port Maria. It consists of a Spanish style 3 bedroom main house, a 4 bed cottage, staff building, unfinished 2 bed cottage and a music studio. This property was once owned by Rita Marley and has all the makings of an ultra exclusive music compound or a environmentally friendly boutique hotel. It is utterly private and has the look and feel of a dense rainforest. The view of the Port Maria coastline including the small island off the bay is simply breathtaking, especially from the studio building. This property is full of potential. Make it yours today!
